

M/C Venture Partners' Gillis Cashman to Speak at CompTel Plus Fall Convention and Expo

Details

What: Gillis Cashman, General Partner at M/C Venture Partners, will discuss key financial issues facing the telecommunications industry at the CompTel Plus Fall Convention and Expo's CEO Council Breakfast.

Where: Orlando World Center Marriott
Orlando, Florida

When: Monday, October 6, 2008 from 8:00 AM to 9:30 AM.

Gillis Cashman, General Partner, M/C Venture Partners

Gillis Cashman is a General Partner at M/C Venture Partners and focuses on investments in telecom services. He is currently Chairman of Baja Broadband and serves on the Board of Directors of Cavalier Telephone, Zayo Group, CSDVRS and has an observer Board of Directors seat at GTS CE. Previous board seats include MCCC ICG Holdings (sold to Level 3), City Signal Communications (sold to Cavalier Telephone), Elantic Networks (merged with Cavalier Telephone), FDN Networks (merged with NuVox Communications). He also previously held an observer Board of Directors seat at NuVox Communications and Telution (sold to CSG).

Prior to joining the firm in 1999, he was with Salomon Brothers' Telecommunications Corporate Finance Group, where he focused on mergers and acquisitions in the wireline and wireless segments of the industry. Mr. Cashman graduated cum laude from Duke University receiving an AB in economics with distinction.